

ARABIC LEVEL I + I ADV

WEEK 2

REVIEW

What are the following harakat?

أَ

بُ

حَ

سُ

وَ

TANWEEN (تَنْوِينٌ)

When two of the same harakah are placed at the end of a word, this is called tanween.

It makes a noon sound after the sound that one of said harakah would make

بَيْتٌ

-
- It might be done with a dhammah, fathah, or kasrah – depending on where it is in the sentence.

بَابٌ . بَابًا . بَابِ .

LET'S USE WHAT WE KNOW!

Write the following letters as written here with tanween:

نَ

وُ

مَ

عَ